

James Samolinski

04/26/1927 - 02/10/2019

James "Jim" Samolinski, age 91, was born April 26, 1927, to Peter and Magdeline Samolinski in Antigo, Wisconsin and taken to eternal life on February 10, 2019. Jim married Elizabeth "Betty" DeBroux on August 26, 1950, having celebrated 68 years together.

Jim and Betty raised their five children in Menasha moved to Shawano after Jim's retirement, then to Winneconne the last 12 years where Betty cared for Jim recently as he battled debilitating spinal stenosis.

Jim is survived by his wife Betty, five children and twelve grandchildren: Craig (Pat) Samolinski, their children, Jill (Ken) Buchinger, Ben (Sarah) Samolinski, and Emily Samolinski; Karen Knorr and sons, Jed Knorr, Nic (Shaun) Knorr, and Timm (Angie) Knorr; Karla Holewinski and children, Jodi Holewinski and Jerid (Megan) Holewinski; Jamie (Howard) Dunham and family, Jessica (Andy) King, Erin Dunham, Jordan (Emily) Dunham, Sam (Reanna) Dunham, and Katie Dunham. Jay (Cindy) Samolinski and daughter, Lea Samolinski. Jim is further survived by eighteen great-grandchildren and another expected in May.

Preceding him in death were his parents, twin brother, two other brothers, two sisters, and recently a son-in-law, Roger Knorr.

Jim served his country in WW II, enlisting in the U.S. Navy right out of high school and then for a second term in the Naval Reserves.

Living life through a variety of activities and adventures was how Jim chose to approach life. He inspired his children and grandchildren to always try new things. He provided his family the opportunity to vacation regularly at Post Lake, waterski, snowmobile, fly-fish, hunt, golf, camp, play cards, and much more.

Dad was always game to help with a multitude of projects, never hesitating to pick up a paint brush, hammer, or chain saw. He had an eagerness to stay active and involved in any events that brought family together. We'll miss you Dad, Grandpa, and Great-grandpa for your unique sense of humor and giving us your unconditional love and support!
